District Stock Show

Gets Off to Excellent

Start Despite Heat

Behind every great enterprise there has to be a lot of grinding, and in the case of the Third District Stock Show because the event comes only once a year and a preparatory job has to be done in a short time.

Exhibitors and show management started it out last week-end in a hot and noisy way — but by Monday night everything was in a better way. Everything was in a better way, that is, except the rides and the sprawling machinery of the midway — that section of the show had to come all the way from Fayetteville over the week-end, and it couldn't be done in time. But the midway trucks got here later Monday night, and now the Stock Show attractions are complete.

Some animals suffered even more than humans in the 100-degree heat. All day Monday there was a steady procession of cattle in and out of the exhibit barns as owners by their hands hosed them down with nearby hydrants. The cattle were hot.

In the swine barn we were alarmed when a giant porker, weighing between 800 and 900 pounds, made reaching noises and lumbered in our direction — seeming object to being photographed.

It turned out that he, too, was merely hot and disgruntled. The men directed a couple of boys to Mr. Hog who changed positions and hauled up what he would be a cooler corner.

Monday night's crowd filled the Coliseum and a breeze made comfortable so the folks could enjoy the best stage show in the history of the fair. Congressman

Oren Harris, introduced by State Representative Talbot Field, Jr., spoke just ahead of the show, and he concluded he was given a Western hat by Ray Lawrence in behalf of friends in this the congressman's native county.

Altogether, Manager Bob Shivers and the Stock Show association had to be congratulated on a most successful start.

Hunters Asked to Be Cautious in the Woods

With the approach of the fall hunting season, many people will be enjoying yet another of our state's bountiful resources. The extreme dry weather has the forest floor covered in bone dry condition. Added to this misery many of the trees are shedding their foliage which adds yet another layer of fuel to the ground. In nearly all areas of the state the fields and forests are in extremely hazardous condition. The should be of great concern to all citizens.

According to Ed Waddell, District Forester of Unit 9, who is in charge of forest protection in this area, the high hazard season has been in progress for 31 days already.

During such dangerous times as these the State Forest Rangers are on call at all times. The forest rangers have alerted all standby volunteer fire crews and are ready to go to the fire at a moment's notice.

Mr. Waddell. All leaves have been cancelled and rangers have been instructed to keep all equipment and rolling stock ready for action.

This leaves the forestry commission at its peak effectiveness. There is little else that can be done by personnel and equipment to insure greater safety.

As elaborate as it may appear, the must depend on the citizens to cooperate fully to prevent the fires from starting, says Mr. Waddell. The ranger districts in most cases range from 80 to 325 miles of area.

In many cases we have ranger district boundaries 25 miles apart. It is easy to see that one ranger district pressed to suppress all the fires that might arise in his district and maintain a low acreage fire.

Mr. Waddell asks that all citizens maintain a constant vigil so that fires may be detected and suppressed as soon as possible. Should a fire be found, please report it immediately to the local ranger, Mr. Brooks Collins of Hope, 1, or to Mr. Waddell's office in Memphis, phone no. 3-4641.

In addition to this Mr. Waddell asks that all citizens practice extreme caution in the use of fire observing these simple rules:

1. Do not burn anything unless necessary.

2. If you must burn, be sure your ranger has been notified in advance.

3. Pile debris in small piles with wide fire break around the pile.

4. Stay with the fire until the flames are cold.

5. Never use fire to smoke out game animals from their dens and hiding places.

Here Are Two of the Fine Hereford Herds Exhibited at Third District Livestock Show Here This Week

Livestock Show Opening Draws Over 5,000

More than 5,000 persons attended opening night of the Third District Livestock Show here last night and an even larger crowd is expected tonight.

The main attraction was a top flight stage show that played to a packed Coliseum. With master of ceremonies Candy Candido leading the way at least five acts were enjoyed by the large audience.

The show features a magician that is one of the best to play here. Martinez and Lucia, an excellent acrobatic and dance team; the singing McQuade twins and a trio along with an orchestra. Those who saw the show last night have nothing but praise.

Shortly before the opening of the stage show Congressman Oren Harris, a guest of the Livestock Show District, made a brief talk. At the final performance the honor guest will be Governor Francis Cherry.

Only a part of the Midway was set up last night but will positively be in full swing tonight.

Activity on Wednesday will open with a huge parade at 3 p.m. Entries are pouring in at the Chamber of Commerce office and prizes will be awarded to the winners. At least five bands will be in the parade including Southern State College, Prescott, Nashville, Hope High School and Yerger High School.

The public schools will close Wednesday noon for the parade and students will be dismissed again Friday afternoon which is designated school day. All students will be admitted free to the show grounds and midway rides will be at reduced prices.

Meanwhile judging in various classes started today and will continue throughout the week, and the public is invited to watch the judging which is held in the Coliseum. Results will be published as soon as possible.

Exhibits at the year's show are far superior to any other year. And the livestock, although not as many in number, is the best ever to show here.

Extended Forecast

Extended weather forecast for Sept. 29-Oct. 4:

Arkansas: Temperatures will average 2-5 degrees above normal. Normal minimum 56-71. Normal maximum 79-87. No important changes except cooler Wednesday and again Saturday. Light to moderate in widely scattered showers northwest portion Tuesday night and again about Saturday.

Loaf, Live Longer But Simply Remember Old Loafers Never Die, They Just Loaf Away

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — "Strive to loaf if you would succeed in living longer."

That could well be every man's motto in these tense times. For it is now an accepted medical fact that too much hard work and exercise may kill you or drive you crazy.

One doctor, remarking on the need of Americans to take it easier to improve their health, said recently:

"Why, just plain, old-fashioned loafing has become a lost art."

Well, boys, let's drop everything and join in the search. Finders, keepers!

Since health has been hailed as the nation's first line of defense — and loafing helps keep you healthy

Senators Would Keep Atom Secrets

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Several key senators displayed a lack of enthusiasm today for furnishing atomic weapons information to U. S. allies.

There have been strong indications the Eisenhower administration will ask Congress next year for authority to do so. Policy-making officials were pictured yesterday as believing the international effort to build up Western Europe's defenses requires sharing of some weapons information which under present law is kept secret.

Without reference to that problem, Secretary of Defense Wilson said after a talk with President Eisenhower yesterday that Russia is making "lots of progress" in the atomic field.

Responding to a reporter's suggestion to sum up the problems facing this country, Wilson said:

"We must realistically face the problem that the Russians, too, are making lots of progress in atomic and thermonuclear (hydrogen) weapons. We must face the reality that, if not at the moment, very shortly they will be able to make bombs of any size also."

HOT IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago's hot summer season is over but more heat records fell yesterday as the mercury climbed to 91.5 degrees. It was the hottest Sept. 28 on record and the highest reading for this late in any year.

John P. Cox, Hope Druggist, Succumbs

John P. Cox, Hope business man and a druggist for 50 years, died late Tuesday night at his home here. A native of Columbia County, he came to Hope in 1918 and purchased the Battle-Croscoe Drug Co., which has operated as the Cox Drug Co., since.

Mr. Cox served as president of the State Pharmaceutical Association in 1934, became a member of the First Methodist Church in 1908, served on the board of Stewards, was a 32nd degree mason and a member of the Kiwanis Club.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Nell Cox, one son, Donald Lamar Cox, three granddaughters, two brothers, E. A. Cox of Waldo, Eugene Cox of Hope, three sisters, Mrs. W. M. Arnold of Waldo, Mrs. John A. Davis of Prescott and Mrs. W. R. Stocks of Waldo.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Wednesday at the First Methodist Church of Hope by the Rev. Virgil Keeley.

Active pallbearers: George Peck, Vincent Foster, R. L. Broach, Dorsey McRae, E. L. Archer, Jr., Martin Pool.

Fulbright Favors 90% Parity

TYRONZA (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright (D-Ark) says he'll back 90 per cent of parity farm price supports until something better comes along.

The "something better," he said, could be a balanced foreign trade program with much lower tariffs and relaxed import regulations.

Such a program, he told the Tyronza Rotary Club yesterday "is the only real answer" to the problem of fixing stable prices for midsoath farm products.

P. B. Reporter, Mayor in Fight

PINE BLUFF — An argument between Mayor George Steed of Pine Bluff and a newspaper reporter flared into a fist fight at the police station here yesterday.

The combats were separated before serious injury was done. Police Chief Met Gallagher and a detective broke up the scuffle between Steed and Reporter Jimmy Atkinson of the Pine Bluff Commercial.

There were only two witnesses to the fight — Desk Sgt. Henry Brown and an unidentified woman. Neither would comment on the row.

22 Persons Die in Crash of Airliner

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The death toll from the worst aviation disaster in Kentucky's history climbed to 23 today when Stewardess Dorothy Jean Bush, 32, of San Antonio, succumbed.

The survivors were reported in critical condition at three hospitals.

The twin-engine C46, one of five chartered by the Army to transfer 140 soldiers from Camp Kilmer, N. J. to Ft. Knox, Ky., nearly touched ground when undetermined trouble developed.

After pulling up to about 400 feet, the liner nosed down and crashed with a terrific impact. Bodies were scattered as far as 100 feet. Some were decapitated.

Only the stewardess among the crew of three survived. Resort Airlines of Miami, Fla., operator of the flight, identified her as Dorothy Jean Bush, 32, of Miami.

The pilot, Capt. Whorton Muller, 33, and his assistant, Co-Capt. John DeWitt Pickel, 31, both of San Antonio, Tex., were dead when ambulances arrived.

The status of the soldiers was not clarified immediately since their records went with them on the transfer.

Authorities at Camp Kilmer said they were among a group of Puerto Ricans processed from overseas for reassignment and that quite likely some of them saw combat service in Korea.

1st. Col. Roscoe Buckles, staff duty officer at Ft. Knox, said the men had been taken to Camp Kilmer from Puerto Rico.

None of the survivors could tell what happened.

Dock Workers Threaten Walkout

By EUGENE LEVIN

NEW YORK (AP) — The International Longshoremen's Association (ILA), faced with increasing defections to a new AFL union, today threatened a strike which could detonate full-scale dock war with the rival group.

The ILA, ousted from the AFL a week ago for failure to cleanse itself of racketeering, posed the walkout threat for a minute after tomorrow midnight in contract negotiations with eastern shippers.

While he ILA dealt with employers, it also had to meet inroads from the new International Longshoremen's Association, AFL (ILA-AFL), which was chartered by the AFL after the ILA was ousted.

Latest blow to the ILA came last night when two locals with 1,500 men bolted in to join the secession. A third local started the secession movement here a few days ago. There also have been defections elsewhere.

The ILA also was reported in the throes of an intra-union squabble for leadership. ILA President Joseph P. Ryan checked into French Hospital yesterday for observation.

INCORPORATES

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The A. K. McBride Construction Co., Fort Smith, today filed articles of incorporation listing authorized capital of $200,000. Incorporators: A. K. McBride, N. B. Barker and Lucille Kueeman, all of Fort Smith.

C. F. Routon to Sell Business and Retire

Routon and Co., at Elm and Second Streets is in process of a "going out of business" sale. It was announced today by C. F. Routon, owner and operator.

Mr. Routon came to Hope at the age of 19 and has been connected with department stores here for over 50 years, the longest stretch was with Robison and Co., for 18 years.

Six years ago he opened his own store which he has actively operated since that time.

"Now I'm going out of business and retire," Mr. Routon said today. "I would like to tell the people of this area that I sincerely appreciate their friendship and courtesy over the years," he concluded.

Between 1940 and 1952 farm employment in the south declined one-fifth, and the number of sharecroppers dropped one-third.

Russia Favors Meet to Ease World Tension

Bulletin:

BERLIN (AP) — The West Berlin city press office announced tonight that West Berlin's fighting anti-Communist Mayor Ernst Reuter died shortly after 7 p. m. (1 p. m. EST).

Reuter's death was unexpected. He was 64.

The famed anti-Communist may was taken ill in the night with an attack of bronchitis. Earlier today the press office had said there was no cause for alarm and that he was responding to treatment.

Youth Center Reminds Public of Park Lot

The Youth Center parking lot parked around eighty cars last night and expect business to increase tonight. Several more attendants will be on hand tonight to insure safe and easy parking.

Due to the large parking space, there are absolutely no traffic problems and customers can come and go as they wish without being blocked in. The lot is also very well lighted and readily accessible to the South gate of the fair grounds. The surrounding streets will be sprinkled down tonight to help conquer the dust problem. The lot can be approached by turning left off of park drive or by coming down in front of the county shop to the South gate.

To see the fair quickly and conveniently and to insure the safety of your car, park in the Youth Center parking lot.

New Phone Directory Has Big City Look

Hope's new telephone directory with a "metropolitan" name prefix in front of all numbers is now being mailed to homes and businesses, Jerry Poe, manager of the company, announced today.

Poe said that the new name prefix — "Prospect" — goes into effect with the delivery of the new directory.

"The name prefix is being added to all numbers here as part of the plan that's providing faster long distance service for Hope through operator toll dialing," Poe said.

"The actual numbers will not change, but will simply have 'Prospect' placed in front of them."

Poe continued that it will not be necessary to dial any letters in the prefix; just the five digits in the number as you have been doing.

But in placing long distance calls it will be necessary to give the operator the complete number — both the name prefix and the digits.

"The long distance operator needs the complete number for long distance dialing purposes," Poe explained. "Also people calling you from other cities will need to give the operator your complete number for the same reason. To take full advantage of long distance dialing, everyone should give his complete number to friends and business people who call frequently from out of town."

About the new directory, Poe added: "I want to urge everyone to start using the new directory as soon as they receive it. It contains all the new numbers added during the past year, plus any number changes that have been made during this time."

All Around the Town

By The Star Staff

Hempstead County's third polo victim of the year is Mrs. Louise Sanders, 21, wife of James R. Sanders of North Elm Street. She was sent to a Texarkana hospital last week and her case has been confirmed as polo. W. W. Andrews, Hempstead Chairman, verified today.

"Debut," a comedy in three acts, written by Mary Drayton, opens tonight at the Empire Theater in St. Louis. Mary Drayton will be remembered as Mary Horton McCorkle, daughter of Ed McCorkle of Hope.

The Hempstead Hospital Committee met Monday at Little Rock with Architect Dave Weaver, Moody Moore, secretary of the State Board of Health, Dr. Kauffman, supervising engineer for federal hospitals and a district supervisor from Dallas. Minor details were ironed out and "much progress" was made, the committee reports.

The Oxnard (Calif.) Press-Courier carries a picture in a recent issue of two sailors losing a 105-pound melon into a car bound for Fort Huemene base. One sailor is Danny Failler and the other Dorsey Byers, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orrie Byers of Hope, Ark., sent him the melon to show friends what a real Arkansas melon looks like. It was grown by Oscar Middlebrooks.

The Crippled Children's Division will hold a diagnostic and check-up clinic in the First Methodist Church, 6th and Laurel, Texarkana on Thursday, October 1. Those from Hempstead who do not have transportation are asked to report to the Health Unit, Hempstead Courthouse, at 8 a.m., and transportation will be furnished.

But Wants Red China Included, Admitted to UN

By EDWARD M. KORRY

PARIS (AP) — The Soviet Union proposed today a five-power meeting including Red China on all problems affecting "world tension" and a four-power parley with the United States, Britain and France on the future of Germany.

Russia demanded also that Communist China be given a seat in the United Nations and be permitted to take part in the settlement of all issues concerning the Pacific and Southeast Asia.

The Russian proposals were contained in a note handed to the three Western ambassadors in Moscow yesterday. The notes arrived in Washington, Paris and London today.

The long and vague — possibly deliberately — Soviet note gave no would like to hold the two conferences.

The initial reaction of officials here was that since the Russians put the five-power parley first they meant to make it — at least for bargaining purposes — a condition for the holding of a four-power conference on Germany.

PARIS (AP) — The Soviet Union has unconditionally accepted the Western proposal for a Big Four meeting to discuss German problems, an American Embassy source said today.

At the same time, the Russians proposed the Big Four and Communist China also meet to consider ways of easing world tensions.

The Russians did not set a date or name a place for the Big Four foreign ministers meeting on Germany. The United States, France, and Britain had suggested that such a conference be held in Lugano, Switzerland, Oct. 15.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Israel wound up the U. N. Assembly's general debate today by joining in the growing chorus of demands that the great powers get together in direct negotiations to settle world tensions.

Shortly after the Soviet Union handed diplomatic notes to the West proposing big power meetings, Israel's Abba Eban told the 60-nation General Assembly:

"Negotiations to resolve the major causes of international tension are now envisaged by the leaders of the great powers as a serious and tangible prospect. All our governments and peoples have been inspired by the vision of a new international era in which the second half of this century would emerge full of peace and abundance."

India's V. K. Krishna Menon yesterday urged a big power conference to end world tension and said he would ask the Assembly to call on leaders such as Prime Minister Churchill, President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov to get together.

In this connection, Eban said "my delegation hopes the General Assembly will develop the long-dormant idea of a summit conference to play a role in international disputes to their duty of direct diplomatic settlement."

He declared that "if the sincere attitudes of direct settlement begin to take root both in great power relationships and in areas of stubborn regional conflict, this eighth regular session of the Assembly may well mark a stage in man's eternal and indefatigable quest for a peaceful world."

McCarthy Weds Office Secretary

By RUTH GMEINER

WASHINGTON (UP) — Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy married Jean Kerr, his pretty former assistant, today in a glittering society wedding that formally ended his reign as one of the Senate's most confirmed bachelors.

Two thousand guests — high government officials, diplomats, and congressmen — witnessed the simple ceremony before the gem-encrusted high altar of St. Matthew's Roman Catholic Cathedral.

President Eisenhower did not attend. But Vice President and Mrs. Richard M. Nixon, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and other representatives of the administration were on hand.

McCarthy, who is 43, and his radiant, 20-year-old bride stood side by side at the foot of the altar as the Rev. William J. Awalt began the ancient Catholic nuptial rite.

Then he asked the couple to consent to take each other "for better, for worse." McCarthy turned toward "I will." More softly, his bride echoed him: "I will."

The couple knelt as Father Awalt recited, half-humming, half-singing a few bars to accompaniment of drumming fingers on the arms of the witness chair.

Davidson apparently was unimpressed. A few minutes later, he intoned: "Two years."

Coming Your Way!

Hope's NEW TELEPHONE DIRECTORY

With Metropolitan Numbers

Your new telephone directory — containing NEW "METROPOLITAN" NUMBERS — should be reaching Hope homes and businesses today and tomorrow.

When you receive your new directory, keep it near your telephone. It contains all the new numbers that were added during the past year, also any numbers that were changed during this time.

With the new directory comes a metropolitan name prefix — "PROSPECT" — in front of all Hope telephone numbers. The name prefix has been added to your numbers as part of the program that's bringing you a faster long distance dialing system.

SAVE TIME

Remember These Things

1. Look in the NEW directory for the number you want.
2. Dial the five digits, just as you have been doing.
3. On long distance calls, give the operator the complete number, including the name prefix "PROSPECT."

On local calls, it will not be necessary for you to dial any letters in the name prefix; simply the five digits just as you have been doing. But for long distance calls, start using now the complete number, including the Prospect prefix. The operator needs this for long distance dialing purposes. And, it'll be a good idea to give your complete number to friends and others who call you frequently from out of town. You'll get faster service on incoming calls this way, too.

Suppose you wanted to become the healthiest, longest-lived loafer in the annals of this reviving art. How could you best work toward it... that is, achieve this goal? Well, here are some tested principles:

To begin with, you must erase from your mind all other cares or worries, all dreams and desires, all feelings of personal guilt. You'll feel healthier at once. Next, quit your job. Notice how soon that tired businessman feeling goes away?

Then you marry a fine, strapping, wholesome woman able and willing to take in washing. This will relieve you of financial worries, and if you need a clean shirt you can steal it from the laundry of one of your wife's clients.

Now, where to loaf? The best place on sunny days is a park bench. Here, as if you sat on a platform above the earth you can watch and criticize the rushing folly around you — a pleasant sight to the loafer.

Loafers share a philosophical disapproval of all other people. For example, suppose a park employee is mowing the grass. You nod at a patch of dandelions and tell the loafer sitting next to you:

"But he misses 'em'."

Sure enough, the mower chugs by without clipping the dandelions. "What'd I tell you?" you say disgustedly. And the other loafer says, shaking his head, "Yep, he skipped 'em. The world's getting shoddier every day."

Brooding is different from loafing. It's work. To keep from brooding when you're loafing by yourself, the best thing is whittling. That'll keep your mind empty and your hands occupied. But you can't whittle out a ship or a walking stick. It has to be aimless whittling, or you are cheating on your loafing.

On rainy days the best place to loaf is in a courthouse. Nothing else makes a loafer feel more superior than sitting in a courtroom listening to all trials, tribulations and lawsuits working people get themselves into.

Hunger is the only thing that ever interrupts a real loafer, busy at his art. But a wise one never overeats. He knows he can't loaf well if he's sick.

The most perilous pitfall for loafers — outside of job offers — is a pool hall. Stay out of them. A pool room loafer is one who is risking his entire professional career.

Pool halls have wrecked more good loafers than honest toil. The danger is loafing around pool halls is that you will get interested in the game, start paying it yourself for money, and thus get yourself involved in the cares and affairs of mankind.

Then you will be no longer a serious loafer — but an insincere, back-sliding bum. You'll never make a name as a loafer unless you have the character to stick to it.

But remember the reward: Old loafers never die. They just loaf away.

State and federal irrigation experiments in the James River valley of South Dakota boosted corn production from about 22 to over 81 bushels per acre.

3-D Color-in Contest

Hey kids, here's your chance to win a free ticket to see "Charge at Feather River," new three-dimensional movie coming to the Saeager Theatre next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Just color in the above scene, then slip along the heavy solid lines and fold along the light dotted ones. This is a three dimensional effect. The best five entries left at the Saeager Theatre boxoffice before 9 p. m., Thursday, October 1, will win guest tickets.

Clamping on Shipments Behind Curtain

By WARREN ROGERS JR.
WASHINGTON (AP)—Foreign Operations Chief Harold E. Stassen reports the east is clamping down on war goods shipments to Iron Curtain countries but is hesitating its nonstrategic trade with the Reds.

In a 96-page report to Congress yesterday, he estimated that free world shipments to Red China of nonstrategic goods—that is, those not aiding her war potential—would total 375 million dollars this year. He weighed this against a 257 million dollar total last year.

But he emphasized: "The strategic embargo was being increased in the first half of 1953, not relaxed. The increase was in nonstrategic goods."

"The main reason for it seems to be the changed attitude of the Chinese Communists, who had dropped their reluctance to deal with the West and were placing more and bigger orders for the kind of goods that the free government would have been willing to ship all along."

Stassen's report covered global enforcement of strategic trade controls during the first half of the Boy 'Genius' Held by Police

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y. (UP) — A nine-year-old boy genius was held by police today as the boss of a four-boy gang which has committed 21 burglaries in the last seven months.

Police Chief William Sullivan said the youngster admitted he had entered four places with intent to rob shortly before he was arrested early yesterday morning. Sullivan said he implicated three other boys, aged 8, 9, and 10, and said the gang planned its criminal forays in a shack on an empty lot near one of their homes.

Sullivan said the boys spoke pure underworld language in describing his "helists" and "jobs."

"He is a genius," Sullivan said. "There's no question about that. I'm sure when we get him straightened out he'll make a good businessman."

SAVES BOY

CHESTER, Pa. (UP) — A passerby cut down a 11-year-old boy who said he permitted playmates to hang him from a tree.

The boy, David Ingram, was taken to Chester hospital for treatment of shock and rope burns.

ment of shock and rope burns. Joseph Mauro, also of Chester, told police he saw David hanging from a tree in a lot near his home yesterday with several of the boy's companions standing around.

Mauro said he used a penknife to cut the heavy rope around the boy's neck.
